SUMMARY

A proficient web developer with over 11 years of experience in front-end development and occasional backend development to complete end-to-end functionalities. My expertise lies in Angular and React, and my focus is primarily on creating clean, intuitive and accessible UIs for a better UX. I prefer to write clear, well-documented, and performant code with comprehensive automated testing. I have experience working in a scalable environment using Agile/Scrum and Test-driven development (TDD) with CI/CD methodologies.
